Migrancy in Wenatchee

Here in Wenatchee, it is imperative that we work to understand this issue. These are our neighbors, our friends, our employees, their families... These are members of our own community.

This is in Monitor, 5 minutes from my house. Across the street from the Hot Rod Cafe. We drive by it every time we leave our house or come back home.

CHALLENGE QUESTIONS

The Bible is clear that we are to love and seek justice for our migrant neighbors.

In what practical ways do you think you could live out your faith in this way?

What does the Bible say about our relationship with migrants?

“Cursed is anyone who withholds justice from the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow. Then all the people shall say, “Amen!” - Deuteronomy 27:19

You are to have the same law for the foreigner and the native-born. I am the LORD your God. - Leviticus 24:22

He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner residing among you, giving them food and clothing. And you are to love those who are foreigners, for you yourselves were foreigners in Egypt. - Deuteronomy 10:18-19

When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat them. The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the LORD your God. - Leviticus 19:33-34

This is what the LORD Almighty said: “Administer true justice; show mercy and compassion to one another. Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the foreigner or the poor. Do not plot evil against each other.” - Zechariah 7:9-10

When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time.

Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow.

When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again.

Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow.

Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this. - Deuteronomy 24:19-22
